

CPM Achieves $6.5 Million Settlement in Lowe's Employee Misclassification Case

---

On January 12, 2015, Hon. Jeffrey S. White gave final approval to a class action settlement where the Plaintiffs alleged that Lowe's Home Centers, LLC ("Lowe's") misclassified certain installers as independent contractors. Lowe's agreed to pay up to $6.5 million in settlement of this action. After the claims process concluded, each submitting class member received more than $3,000. CPM's attorneys along with attorneys from Block and Leviton, LLP served as co-lead counsel.

Practice Areas

Employee Misclassification

Employment Law