Joyce Enriquez, born and raised in San Francisco, earned her Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Computer Information Systems at San Francisco State University. Her interest for numbers led her to work as an Accounting Clerk at McDermott, Will & Emery, where she worked her way up to becoming a Billing Specialist. She later joined CPM to work closely with the CFO to maintain the financial health of the firm.

Joyce enjoys traveling around the world and spending time with her husband and two kids.
