

CPM Represents City of San Jose in Complaint Filed Against Major League Baseball for Blocking Relocation of Athletics Baseball Club

06.18.2013

The City of San Jose, individually and as successor agency to the Redevelopment Agency of the City of San Jose, and the San Jose Diridon Development Authority, sued Major League Baseball and Major League Baseball Commissioner Huber “Bud” Selig. The Complaint alleges that Major League Baseball interfered with San Jose’s prospective economic advantage and conspired to prevent the Athletics Baseball Club from relocating to San Jose, California, in violation of Federal and California antitrust laws.

Attorneys

Anne Marie Murphy

Practice Areas

Antitrust & Global Competition