

CPM Attorneys Win National Trial Lawyer of the Year

07.27.2014

Congratulations to Joseph Cotchett, Nancy Fineman, Brian Schnarr & the entire lead paint team for being recognized as Trial Lawyers of the Year by Public Justice! Frank Pitre was a finalist for his work in the Toyota Sudden Unintended Acceleration case. Our firm was in 2 of the 5 finalists cases chosen across the United States. Public Justice is America's public interest law firm and help protect people and the environment; hold the powerful accountable and challenge government, corporate, and individual wrongdoing.

Click HERE to view Public Justice's website.

Click HERE to view a video describing the Lead Paint case.

Click HERE to view a video describing the Toyota case.

Attorneys

Frank M. Pitre

Joseph W. Cotchett