

CPM Fights Against Oil Pollution of Farm Lands in Kern County

CPM Partners Frank Pitre and Ara Jabaghourian represent Palla Farms in an action against several oil producers in Kern County. The action alleges that waste water from oil producing activity was improperly disposed of. This has led to the contamination the ground water used by farmers for irrigation with toxic levels of chloride and other substances. As a result, the polluted irrigation water has drastically impacted the health of commercial cherry trees.

Attorneys

Frank M. Pitre

Practice Areas

Contamination, Toxic Torts, and Environmental Justice

Environmental Law